

Snapshot of Vermont Emergency Medical Services

Data from the Statewide Incident Reporting Network (SIREN)

There are nearly 2,800 EMS providers licensed in Vermont

Vermont's EMS system is comprised of 174 ambulance and first response agencies

82 transporting ambulance agencies (transport capabilities)

92 first response agencies (non-transport capabilities)

Only 8 EMS agencies in the state are career departments with a fully-paid staff

Less than 4% of EMS calls in 2017 were for pediatric patients

52.4% of patients were women
47.6% of patients were men

38.8% of EMS calls occurred in a private residence or home

Vermont EMS providers documented nearly 90,000 EMS calls in 2017

In 2017, Vermont emergency medical services personnel responded to

1,800 seizures

85 childbirths

3,800 respiratory emergencies

1,400 drug overdoses (all types)

5,700 motor vehicle accidents

8,700 falls

450 cardiac arrests

4,200 psychiatric issues

1,200 diabetic emergencies

